

It is a threat which will surely no American citizen would make him.

Mr. Cleveland replied to Mr. Wilson in a clear, calm, and dignified address, which was punctuated at almost every sentence by applause. His manner impressed those who saw him close at hand with the idea that an almost overpowering sense of responsibility rested upon the speaker. The climax came when, with a simple gesture, he declared, "I obey my party's call."

Following is Mr. Cleveland's speech of acceptance.

MR. CLEVELAND'S GREAT SPEECH.

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN: The message you deliver from the National Democratic Convention, which I have the honor to receive, is a message of great importance. It is a message which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a message which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a message which will be well received by the people of this country.

Our party's responsibility is indeed great. We assume a momentous obligation to our countrymen. We assume a momentous obligation to our countrymen. We assume a momentous obligation to our countrymen. We assume a momentous obligation to our countrymen.

But, if our responsibility is great, our duty is also great. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country.

Our workmen are still told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity.

It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country.

Our workmen are still told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity.

It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country.

Our workmen are still told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity. They are told the tale of repeated infidelity.

It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country. It is a duty which will be well received by the people of this country.

MRS. CLEVELAND RE-ELECTED.

She Still Holds First Place in the Hearts of Her Countrymen.

Tremendous Ovation Tendered Her at Madison Square Garden.

If there had been the slightest doubt here, before as to the identity of the most popular woman in America there is none today. Mrs. Cleveland is the woman who has been elected to the position of First Lady of the United States.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

Mrs. Cleveland was lifted to the pinnacle of popularity at Madison Square Garden last night by 20,000 representatives of the great American people, who on various occasions have shown their esteem and regard for her, but never before to such an extent.

FLEET AT PEEKSKILL.

Chicago, Atlanta and New Hampshire Cruise Up the Hudson.

Naval Reserve's Day at the State Camp of the National Guard.

The Old Frigate Towed Up by the White Cruiser Atlanta.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., July 21.—When the residents at Bath Beach and Fort Hamilton awoke this morning they found the big wooden war, the Atlanta, and the Atlanta, the old frigate New Hampshire, which have been anchored in Gravesend Bay for nearly a week, and disappeared.

The presence of these ships has proven a valuable factor to the business community at the two seaside resorts in daily drawing crowds of sightseers, and it was with feelings of disappointment that the residents of Peekskill noted the early hours of the morning.

But it was necessary that the men-at-arms should leave for other parts. It was the first day of the second annual cruise of the first Battalion of the New York Naval Reserve, and the programme called for the rescue of the ships today at the State camp.

The 350 young warriors awoke soundly last night after their exciting experiences yesterday in the sham battle just below Fort Hamilton. Every man had struggled bravely in repelling the imaginary foe, and when they turned in all were soon lost in pleasant dreams of a man-of-war's life.

The young men were up at 5 o'clock, and were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill. A cooling breeze blew over Norton's Point, and the men were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill.

The young men were up at 5 o'clock, and were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill. A cooling breeze blew over Norton's Point, and the men were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill.

The young men were up at 5 o'clock, and were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill. A cooling breeze blew over Norton's Point, and the men were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill.

The young men were up at 5 o'clock, and were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill. A cooling breeze blew over Norton's Point, and the men were soon prepared for the day's journey to Peekskill.

SUGAR TRUST MAGNATE DEAD.

Edward C. Knight, of Philadelphia, Passes Away.

His Long and Honorable Career in Business Life.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—E. C. Knight, the millionaire sugar refiner, who has been ill of pneumonia at his cottage here for the past month, died at 3 o'clock this morning. Mr. Knight was seventy-nine years old.

Edward C. Knight was a son of good Quaker stock. He was born in Camden, N. J., Dec. 8, 1813. When twelve years old he began his business career, working from the rising to the setting sun for 75 cents a day.

Mr. Knight said of himself at a banquet given in his honor by the United League Club in September last, he started out in life with a willing hand, a brave heart, and a good mother. He and his father at an early age and he continued himself the support of his mother.

Going to Philadelphia, he found employment at $2 a week, out of which he managed to save $200. This sum was augmented by $2,000 which his mother inherited, and on May 7, 1830, he established himself in business as a sugar refiner.

Mr. Knight's first business was in the sugar trade. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club.

Mr. Knight's first business was in the sugar trade. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club.

Mr. Knight's first business was in the sugar trade. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club.

Mr. Knight's first business was in the sugar trade. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club.

Mr. Knight's first business was in the sugar trade. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club. He was a member of the United League Club, and he was a member of the United League Club.

WAS A FUNERAL PYRE?

Evidence of Human Sacrifice in Fourth of July Canyon.

Insurrectionists Swear to Kill Thirty Leading Mine-Owners.

CATALINA, Idaho, July 21.—Lieut. Smith came in yesterday from Fourth of July Canyon, where he had been sent to search for traces of insurrectionists who had been committing crimes.

In one of the gulches he found a large area that had just been burned over, and in this area had just been the appearance of a funeral pyre.

Closer inspection disclosed evidences of a human sacrifice. The ashes resembled bone ashes, and some of the bones were found in the ground.

Boise City, Idaho, July 21.—United States Marshal Finham has gone to Court d'Alene with warrants for thirty of the leading insurrectionists who have been committing crimes.

The policy of the Federal officials, however, has been changed, and a new procedure will be followed. The insurrectionists will be treated as criminals, and not as political refugees.

Boise City, Idaho, July 21.—The insurrectionists have been treated as criminals, and not as political refugees. The policy of the Federal officials, however, has been changed, and a new procedure will be followed.

Boise City, Idaho, July 21.—The insurrectionists have been treated as criminals, and not as political refugees. The policy of the Federal officials, however, has been changed, and a new procedure will be followed.

Boise City, Idaho, July 21.—The insurrectionists have been treated as criminals, and not as political refugees. The policy of the Federal officials, however, has been changed, and a new procedure will be followed.

Boise City, Idaho, July 21.—The insurrectionists have been treated as criminals, and not as political refugees. The policy of the Federal officials, however, has been changed, and a new procedure will be followed.

PARIS ANARCHISTS AGAIN.

Alleged Plot to Blow Up the Bourse and Other Buildings.

Cholera in Kooban—General Cable News of the Day.

PARIS, July 21.—The Figaro to-day says that the police have discovered an anarchist plot to blow up the Bourse and other public buildings.

The paper adds that two of the conspirators have been arrested. The police are now searching for the others.

CHOLERA REACHES KOOBAN. Strict Quarantine Along the Russo-Romanian Frontier.

BRUCHARAT, July 21.—The Romanian Government has ordered a five days quarantine on the Russo-Romanian frontier to prevent the introduction of cholera.

As a matter of fact, the whole frontier is closed to traffic from Russia, except at one station, and all the ports are closed against vessels arriving from Russian ports in the Danube.

BRUCHARAT, July 21.—It is officially stated that cholera has broken out in the Government of Kooban, on the east shore of the Sea of Azov, and the Black Sea. Six deaths have occurred from the disease in the last few days.

CHOLERA REACHES KOOBAN. Strict Quarantine Along the Russo-Romanian Frontier.

BRUCHARAT, July 21.—It is officially stated that cholera has broken out in the Government of Kooban, on the east shore of the Sea of Azov, and the Black Sea. Six deaths have occurred from the disease in the last few days.

CHOLERA REACHES KOOBAN. Strict Quarantine Along the Russo-Romanian Frontier.

HAS A RECORD FOR SWINDLING

"Henry Mason" Is Joseph's Keeper, Jr., a Crook of Notoriety.

Inspector Steers Recognizes Him and Takes His Photograph.

HENRY MASON, the man who was arrested yesterday for trying to pass a bogus check for $1,400 on Jeweller John R. Klein, of 21 East Seventeenth street, was brought to Police Headquarters this morning by Capt. McLaughlin and Detective Madden, and Chief Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago.

Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring. It was then that Joseph's Keeper, Jr., was arrested, and he was released on his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

Inspector Steers promptly recognized him as Joseph's Keeper, Jr., who has been arrested a number of times for swindling operations about fifteen years ago. Keepers, whose father is a reputable business man in Newark, was released on these charges, however, upon his father's refunding to his son's victim the amounts out of which they had been swindled by his precocious offspring.

HOW ABOUT THIS?

Bandmaster Hall Is Willing to Play in the Evening at East River Park.

The Park Commissioners Now Have No Excuse for Refusing Evening Concerts.

Hall's Old Guard Band. Dear Sir: After the demonstration of the desire of the public, which I witnessed on Thursday evening, I must respectfully withdraw all objection I had to playing in East River Park in the evening from 8 to 10 P. M.

It is the desire of the people, and, although it may inconvenience me, I willingly submit to their demands. Trusting that you will inform the Park Board of my willingness to perform every Thursday from 8 to 10 o'clock P. M. I remain yours respectfully, H. A. HALL.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.

Bandmaster Hall will have a meeting to-morrow and then this letter will be considered. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts. The Park Commissioners now have no excuse for refusing evening concerts.